A Million Works of Mercy!

By Jane Carter, NCCW Supporting Member

Calling all NCCW members: START C-O-U-N-T-I-N-G!

Council members are doing good deeds, serving those in need, and praying for others every day. It is who we are. It is our call and our mission, every day—in big and small ways. And during this Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy, we are even more conscious of the importance of our works.

On April 3, 2016, the Feast of Divine Mercy, members of NCCW ---- START C-O-U-N-T-I-N-G every work of mercy performed. As we feed the hungry, pray for our friends and family, clothe the naked, counsel those in crisis, visit the sick, serve funeral lunches and comfort the sorrowing—those merciful works we do every day—we will be C-O-U-N-T-I-N-G. We will add them up—from one to a hundred to a thousand and more—until we reach our goal of a MILLION before the end of the Jubilee Year—The Feast of Christ the King on November 20, 2016.

Add up your Works of Mercy as an individual or as an affiliate, whatever works best for you and then send in your tally every month and watch the totals grow. Email to mercynccw@gmail.com or mail them to Jane Carter. P.O. Box 4756. Oak Ridge. TN. 37831 at the end of every month.
